

Pastor Al Nick Van Roberson, Sr.

Elder Al Nick Van Roberson, Sr. is a leader, visionary, entrepreneur, and a progressive thinker, who serves as senior pastor of Calvary Christian Ministries, Inc. in Powder Springs, GA., for the past 14 years.

Born in the city of Bowling Green, Kentucky and educated in the Warren County school system, Elder Roberson continued his education and academic pursuits by earning an Associate Degree in Biblical Studies, Bachelor's Degree in Pastoral Ministry, and a Master of Divinity Degree. He has earned his Level 1 certification in Clinical Pastoral Education through Saint Joseph Hospital for Pastoral Care and Counseling. He is an ordained Elder with the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World Inc. He was newly elected as the assistant treasurer of the 30th Episcopal District of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc., and advisor to the Usher Board.

He has served in numerous positions in the church and in the business community, such as usher, bus driver, trustee, finance committee chairman, janitor, choir, and young people president. As the president of TRG Financial, Inc. he has served as the past president of Cobb Association of Life Underwriters. He holds several licenses and professional industry designations.

He accepted the call to salvation while serving in the United States Marine Corp in Jacksonville, NC. His spiritual gifts were identified by the late Pastor Preston T. Satterfield of Our Lord's Temple church and later nurtured under the leadership of his spiritual father Bishop Stewart Reese, Jr. senior pastor of Bethesda Cathedral.

Celebrating 36 years of marriage, Al Nick Van Roberson, Sr. and Lady Pamela Yvette Roberson are parents of two sons, Nick Jr., and Geremy. They also are grandparents to five grandchildren Kylee, Hayden, Tyler, Jayse, and Adalyn. Elder Roberson credits his mother Evelena R. Boards as the source of his perservance and sense of self-reliance.

Elder Roberson has always pursued having a ministry that goes “beyond the walls” of the church in an ongoing effort to touch lives with the love of God. It is his feeling that Calvary Christian Ministries must have a positive and powerful impact on its community by bringing hope and encouragement in every way possible through our UNITY for the CommUNITY Calvary 5K Run/Walk and other ministry initiatives.

MISSION: To seek and to save those that are lost by reaching and teaching people how to live a transformed life through the gospel of Jesus Christ. To renew those who have been drawn away by the cares of this world.
